

Have you been wanting to level up your Health Coaching practice by offering individualized nutrition guidance?

NUTRITION THERAPY INSTITUTE

Become a Nutrition Therapist Master (NTM) through Nutrition Therapy Institute! As a leader in holistic nutrition education since 1999, NTI has provided students with the highest quality training, helping them achieve thriving careers in the field of holistic nutrition and wellness.

What makes Nutrition Therapy Institute different from other nutrition schools? They teach not only what to do, but why to do it.

If you are a certified Health Coach, NTI is offering a waiver of their Business Readiness and Coaching Skills course (a $790 value!). Take advantage of your Health Coaching background to save $790 and become a Nutrition Therapist Master in less time!

To be eligible, health coaches must provide proof of:

- Health Coaching Certification (certificate or diploma)
- At least 1 year of running a Health Coaching business (Certificate of Good Standing from the Secretary of State)
